Kite Making Class

In advance of the April 3 Arvada Kite Festival, the Majestic View Nature Center is hosting three kite-making classes that include all the materials necessary to build and fly your own kite.

Date: Three separate classes on Friday, April 1, and Saturday, April 2

Location: Majestic View Nature Center, 7030 Garrison St.

Time: 4-5 p.m. on Friday, April 1; 11 a.m. to noon on Saturday, April 2; and 1-2 p.m. on Saturday, April 2

Cost: $4 per person

Additional information: Advance registration is required; please call 720-898-7405 to register

Arvada Kite Festival

Bring your kite, or purchase one on-site. In addition to kite-flying fun, there will be a jumping castle, slide, train rides, face painting, balloon artists, hamster balls and more. A live DJ will perform throughout the day, and there will also be exhibits by professional kite flyers. Plenty of great local food and artisan vendors will also be on-hand. Sponsored by the Arvada Festivals Commission.

Date: Sunday, April 3

Location: Stenger/Lutz Sports Complex, West 58th Avenue between Oak Street and Kipling Parkway

Time: 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Cost: Free

Stamp Out Hunger: Arvada Community Food Bank

The National Association of Letter Carriers' annual Stamp Out Hunger food drive will again take place the second Saturday in May. Please help the NALC and the Arvada Community Food Bank collect a record 100,000 pounds of food this year. This food is critical for the Food Bank to make it through the summer months, when donations typically fall short. Fill the blue bag left by your postal carrier and leave it by your mailbox by 9 a.m. on Saturday, May 14. Your letter carrier or an Arvada Community Food Bank volunteer will pick up your donation.

Date: Saturday, May 14
